

18 Then Jesus came to them and said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. 19 Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20 and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."

Matthew 28:18–20

Pastoral Welcome

“Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.’ The second is this: ‘Love your neighbour as yourself.’ There is no commandment greater than these.”

Mark 12:30–31

When asked which commandment was the greatest, Jesus did not offer a list of religious duties. Instead, He reduced the whole of life to two simple yet profound commands: Love God. Love People. Every act of worship, every expression of faith, every work of ministry, and every step of discipleship ultimately flows from these two commands. Simple to understand—but not always simple to live.

The more deeply we experience God’s love, the more naturally His love overflows through our lives. A heart captivated by Christ cannot remain indifferent to the people He loves, nor can it keep His love to itself. This is especially true of those who have yet to know Christ.

When God’s love fills our hearts, we cannot remain indifferent to the eternal destiny of our family members, friends, neighbours and colleagues. Loving people means desiring not only their present good, but also their eternal hope in Christ. As we grow as Christ’s disciples, we are also called to lovingly lead others to become His disciples.

We are grateful to Rev. Dr. Vincent Leoh for partnering with us in this conference. Through decades of faithful pastoral ministry and leadership, he has consistently inspired believers to love God wholeheartedly and to live out that love in practical, life-transforming ways.

It is our prayer that throughout these two days, God will deepen our love for Him, renew our passion for His purposes, and empower us by His Spirit to live as authentic witnesses wherever He has placed us. May this conference not simply inspire us for a moment, but shape us into a church that loves God wholeheartedly, disciples people sacrificially, and faithfully makes Christ known until He returns!
